

Catering

There are good on-site catering facilities. The 'Refectory' (C1 on site plan) offers full meals. 'Graze' (C2) offers hot and cold snack food and light meals in an informal atmosphere. Tea & Coffee service will be available in the Teaching Block (C3) and the Regional Food Academy (RFA) (C4) and a Lounge Bar open as shown below. Wine and canned beer can be purchased in 'Graze'.

The Conference Dinner will be in the Queen Mother Hall on Friday at 19.30. Tickets for the 3 course meal are £21 per head with a cash bar. Places are limited so please book early. Dinner on Saturday evening is also available in the Queen Mother Hall at £15.00 per head followed by a table quiz – be warned there will be a couple of rounds on beekeeping! Again please book via June Hughes (details below)

On Sunday a light sandwich lunch with beverages will be available in the Refectory at £8.40 per head. This must be pre-booked and is included in the price of many of the courses offered on Sunday.

Accommodation

Good quality en-suite accommodation is available on site in the modern residences. The rooms are all singles, available at £45 per night B&B. Couples may book a pair of rooms at the special rate of £76 per night B&B. There are also facilities on site for overnight parking of campers and caravans and for camping. There are no hook-up facilities or sluices but showers etc are available.

Off-site, a range of accommodation is available in some local hotels and guest houses. For further details, room bookings, camping and meal tickets, contact:
